

Public Consultation Meetings

Proposed Whakamaru-Otahuhu grid upgrade

The Electricity Commission is holding a series of public meetings in Waikato and South Auckland to talk to local communities and other interested parties about its draft decision for consultation in relation to Transpower's proposed transmission grid upgrade between Whakamaru and Otahuhu.

Members of the public are invited to attend the meetings to hear about the draft decision and how to make submissions before the Commission reaches its final decision in July 2006.

The Commission's draft decision documents are available on the web from 27 April 2006, at: <http://www.electricitycommission.govt.nz>
