

Submission to Electricity Commission on Centralised Dataset Additions

From

Contact Energy

16 June 2006

General Comments

Contact Energy supports the inclusion of embedded generation in the next version of the Centralised Dataset to be published in July 2006. We also support the inclusion of lake level data in future version of the Centralised Dataset. Both sets of information would be useful in carrying out energy and market related modelling.